

The Cold War Comes to an End

Détente -

Glasnost -

Perestroika -

Repression -

The Soviet Union in Eastern Europe

Throughout the Cold War the Soviet Union repressed the States of Eastern Europe (Brezhnev Doctrine) using extreme force.

Revolts in _____

As the Cold War came to an end the USSR allowed pro-democracy movements in E. Europe. Without the threat of Soviet force Communism begins to crumble in E. Europe.

1989: _____

1990: Germany is _____

*

*

1991 Baltic States declare independence: _____

Czechoslovakia Breaks Apart: _____

Yugoslavia Breaks Apart: _____

Poland

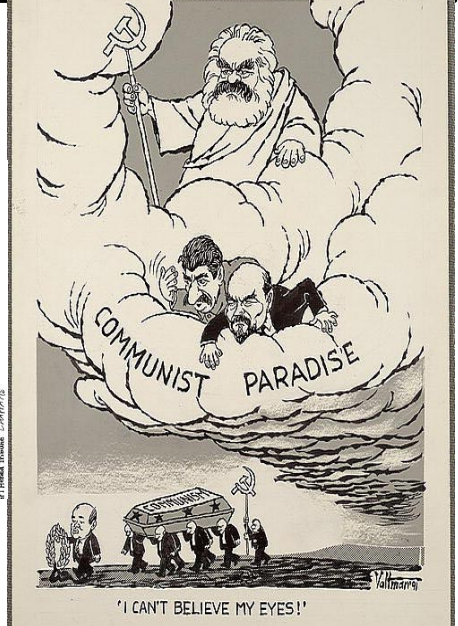

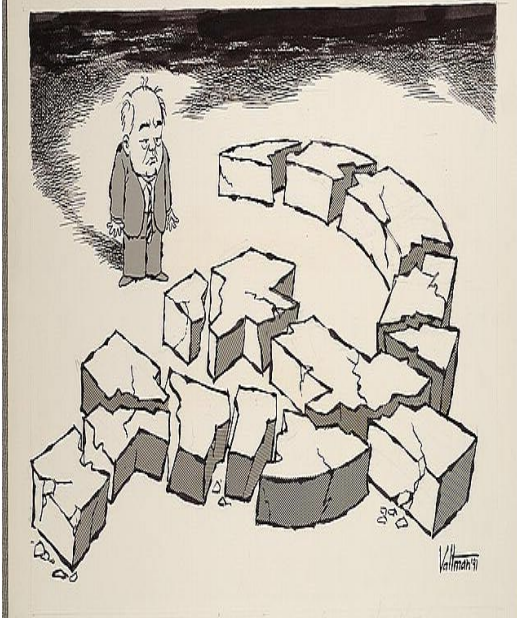

SOLIDARITY MOVMENT

-

-

-

The End of the Soviet Union

Non-Aligned Countries During the Cold War

The United States and Soviet Union both sought to gain influence over 3rd World (Developing) Countries.

Non Aligned: _____

- 1)
- 2)
- 3)

