

A typical medieval manor.

1. Identify the parts of the diagram

- a) What is the subject of the diagram? _____

- b) What kind of buildings does the diagram show? _____

- c) How many fields does the manor have? _____

- d) What types of livestock were raised? _____

2. Analyze the information in the diagram

- a) Use the diagram to compare a serf's house with the manor house. _____

- b) What was the purpose of the blacksmith shop? The lord's oven? The mill?
Why was it important for the lord to provide the serfs with these facilities?

- c) Based on the diagram, how do you know that religion played an important role in manor life? _____

3. Draw Conclusions based on the information in the diagram

- a) What evidence in the diagram supports the statements that each manor was a self-sufficient world? _____

- b) How would this affect life in Europe? _____

